

Wellington Psychodrama Training Institute: Nelson Branch

2010 Psychodrama Training Programme:

The Psychodramatic method is based on life itself. It promotes spontaneity and vitality. Psychodrama has application when working with individuals, families, groups and organisations in therapeutic, educational and organisation settings. Psychodrama is recognised by the New Zealand Aotearoa Psychotherapy Board as a recognised route for registration as a psychotherapist. This series called, Elements of the Psychodramatic Method will occur over five Sundays in 2010. Cher Williscroft and Claire Guy are certified trainers, educators and practitioners in all psychodrama methods including psychodrama, sociodrama, role training, sociometry and group work. If you wish to know anything further about the training or receive the Core Curriculum training please call either one of us Cher 5452567 Claire 5480290
